Message from the Presidents

Another month has come and gone. Summer is over and Fall is here. I hope you all had some great visits with your Mid over the Summer. The Mids are now over a month into classes and soon they will be facing the first “Six Week” exams of the year.

Navy Football has been off to a good, if not sparse, start. Weekly games will finally be upon us and I hope some of the areas will take advantage of regular football games to get together and share the Navy experience.

Second Class Parent’s Weekend has also come and gone and what a great experience it was. We really enjoyed our time on the Yard and being able to see what the Mid’s life is like in Bancroft Hall compared to our Plebe Parent Weekend visit. They are definitely more used to being on the Yard and much more comfortable with daily Mid life. Attending a day of classes was an experience. It was so exciting to see what our Mids our studying and mastering. We had to opportunity to sit in on a Cyber class as well as Electrical Engineering and Leadership. Wow, the curriculum they take is amazing and they are really being prepared well for their future endeavors.

And let’s not forget the football game and tailgate parties. The spirit and camaraderie of Mids, fellow parents, alumni and friends of Navy is so strong and exciting to see and to know the type of “family” our children will be a part of for life.

I hope all of you and your Mids are doing well, and we look forward to seeing you all next month at the Chili Cookoff. It is always a super event with great people (you), good food and fun times for all. More details coming soon!

Until next month,

Go Navy!
