

Message from the Presidents

Fellow Parents:

We hope you all had an enjoyable relaxing holiday season with your Mid and the rest of your family and that your holidays were full of joy. By the time you read this it will be close to the time to say farewell to our Mids for another semester. Hard to believe that the holiday break has gone so fast. The marvelous victory of the Midshipmen at the Army-Navy game is starting to feel like it was so long ago, but it will be a memory we will remember for a long time. Hopefully you all had the chance to see it, whether in person, at the joint viewing party, or in the comfort of your home. Wherever you saw it I'm sure you agree it was a great game, and even greater outcome!

For those that went to the All-Academies Ball, I trust you had a great time as we celebrated our Mids and Cadets in a more formal way. A big BZ to the committee that put it all together, it is quite an effort to pull the event off year after year. For those that did not attend, you really should make a point to go next year.

December also saw the end of the first semester for our Plebes and the first extended time they were able to come home, wear regular clothes, and enjoy a little downtime without constant scrutiny of every action. Soon it will be back to the yard and the second half of Plebe year culminating with Sea Trials, the annual Herndon Climb, and finally a big "Plebe no more" smile.

Have a great January and we look forward to seeing you all at the Salute to our Alumni Parents at the annual Winter meeting at the end of the month.

Go Navy!! (We) Beat Army!!!
